Monday Evening.

Dear Mother,

I forgot to remind you that my best white gloves are in my chiffonier
drawer (don't know
which one) & I spec'
I'll need 'em.

Did a big wash
this a.m. & my clothes

look lovely + white even if I didn't have any blueing. I'd gotten down to enough underwear to last 10 days and thought it would be mean to send my laundry just as you
were getting your first breathing spell since Xmas. So I washed
enough to last another 10 days or maybe 2
weeks - so you can have your hard-earned vacation. As for me, I had a glorious time, sogging in the sun.

How's Jack? I guess ^{my} last ^{Sunday's} letter made him mad, for he hasn't written a letter to me since a week ago Sat.
& I've written him five (four since the hottest one).

I have on my new waist & it looks swell & elegant! If you have any scraps of green from my dress you might send them with the gloves & I'll touch up my slipper bows to match the costume.

Must close.

Love to all,

Just.

Went to The Will: this P. M. & ordered everything for the Tea.
